

JEAN M. BOYLAN
919 Albany St.
Los Angeles, California 90015
B345

LEGAL EXPERIENCE: Gibbs, Giden, Locher & Turner, Los Angeles, CA (9/86 to 5/97)
Partner: Construction Litigation/Business
Litigation (November 1992 to 1997)
Partnership Executive Committee
(November 1993 to December 1995)
Associate Attorney: Construction Litigation/Business Litigation
(August 1986 to November 1992)

- Responsibility for complex construction cases
- Prepare legal pleadings, take and defend depositions, attend and argue court proceedings, conduct arbitration proceedings
- Draft and negotiate contracts
- Recruit/interview prospective associates
- Hiring Partner

FACULTY

APPOINTMENTS: Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, CA (7/10 – 7/15)
Associate Dean for Clinical Programs and Experiential Learning

Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, CA (1/96 to present)
Clinical Professor of Law

- Teach Bar Writing, Legal Writing, Ethical Lawyering and Legal Drafting, Contract Drafting and Academic Support and Bar Counseling

California State University, Northridge (1/94 to 1/96)
Adjunct Professor Business Law II

EDUCATION: Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, CA
J.D. May 1986

Honors and Awards:

- Deans Honor List, 1984, 1985
- Am Jur Award in Advanced Constitutional Law
- Jesuit Community Scholarship 1985, 1986

Loyola-Marymount University, Los Angeles, CA
B.S. in Psychology, Minor in Business Administration 1983

Honors and Awards:

- Graduated Cum Laude
- Presidential Award for Outstanding University Service
- Jesuit Community Scholarship, 1982, 1983

BAR MEMBERSHIP: Admitted to the State Bar of California, 1986.

PUBLICATIONS:

Member U.S. District Courts for the Central, Southern, Northern and Eastern Districts of California.

“After Katrina: Is the Emergency Exception to Public Bidding All Washed Up?” Loyola New Orleans Law Review (2007)

“Owner Beware: California Mechanics’ Lien Law is Constitutionally Biased,” 27 Whittier Law Review 343 (2005)

“The Total Cost Method: A Creative Approach to Calculating Damages in Complex Construction Cases,” 25 Whittier Law Review 769 (2004)

“Improving Success for Non-Traditional Law Students: Summer Programs,” St. Mary’s Law Review on Minority issues, volume 5, Fall (2002)

Presenter, “Incorporating Professionalism in any Writing or Lawyering Skills Class,” National Legal Writing Institute (June 2002)

National Speaker, “Designing Programs to Improve Bar Passage,” National Academic Support Conference (June 2002)

Crossing the Divide: Why Summer Programs Should be Required for Nontraditional Law Students, St. Mary’s Law Review, Volume 5, page 21, Fall 2002

The Abandonment of Contract Doctrine in Construction Disputes, Los Angeles Lawyer (January 2000)

Public Contracts and Competitive Bidding, ABA Probate and Property Journal (October 1997)

Bidding Wars, 18 Los Angeles Magazine 27 (1996)

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES &
COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dean’s Panel at National Legal Writing Conference, Portland, Oregon (July 2016)

Presenter, Third Annual Capital Area Legal Writing Conference (2013)

Presenter, Legal Writing Institute (2002, 2004, 2006, 2012)

Presenter, Academic Support Conference on Early Bar Programs (1998)

Ethics Presenter, California Defense Lawyers Conference (1998)

Board Member & Volunteer Attorney, The HeArt Project (1999-2008)

UNIVERSITY SERVICE: Coordinator/Faculty Advisor of International LLM/Bar Program
Evening Program Evaluation
Alumni Scholars Faculty Advisor
Deans Search committee (2008)
Strategic Planning Committee (2007-2009)
Deans Advisory Committee (2005-2007)
Chair Bar Passage Committee (2004-2006)
Chair Career Services Committee (2002-2004)

AWARDS: St. Ignatius of Loyola Award, Loyola Law School (2009)
Professor of the Year, Loyola Law School (2005)