

JUNE 17-20, 2009

Sponsorship $10,000

Each Major Sponsor contributes $10,000 to a Journalist Law School Scholarship Fund. Loyola Law School maintains control of the program and awards the scholarships based on an application process. Sponsors may nominate a worthy journalist(s) who would then be invited to apply. Local organizations can assist in promoting the Journalist Law School in states or localities which otherwise might not be reached. Sponsorships cover lodging, meals, instruction and curriculum materials and travel expenses.
