To create your own account for RIA Checkpoint:

Go to the web site http://ria.thomson.com/cploginids

You must do this from a computer on the Loyola Law School campus. Select IP location “Law-School”

Compete the information and you will be mailed a password.

Use that information to login at http://checkpoint.riag.com
You can use this login from anywhere. This registration is only good for one semester, so you will need to repeat the process for each semester.
