

GARY CRAIG

EXPERIENCE

LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL, Los Angeles

Clinical Professor (July 2010 – present)

- Teach the following courses: Civil Litigation Practice I and II, Legal Research and Writing, Ethical Lawyering, Professional Responsibility in the United States, Deposition Workshop.
- Serve as a faculty advisor for the Young Lawyers Program.
- Advise students on course planning.
- Coordinate visits to Loyola by high school and college students.
- Directed Loyola's Summer Institute Program.
- Served as Concentration Director and as faculty advisor for the Civil Litigation Concentration.

Associate Dean for Faculty (June 2020 – May 2023)

- Managed the academic program during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Developed the course schedule.
- Hired adjunct faculty.
- Administered the academic discipline process.
- Planned and facilitated course advising presentations.
- Organized faculty committees and meetings.
- Planned and facilitated orientations for new faculty.

SIDLEY LLP, Los Angeles

Litigation Partner (July 2005 – June 2010); Associate (October 1997 – June 2005)

Practiced in all areas of litigation, with an emphasis on representing accounting firms and corporations in connection with securities fraud litigation, fraud and breach of fiduciary duty litigation, professional liability and negligence actions, and breach of contract actions. Represented clients in connection with investigations conducted by the U.S. Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

- Represented and counseled corporate, individual, and pro bono clients in all phases of litigation, including motions, depositions, court appearances, arbitration, and mediation.
- Provided strategic planning and case management by assessing clients' goals, operative facts, legal options, and pragmatic considerations.
- Supervised teams of associates, legal assistants, and support staff.
- Chaired office's Recruiting Committee and Pro Bono Committee, mentor associates, and participate in Diversity, Summer Associate, and Assignment Committees.

ADDITIONAL TEACHING/PROGRAM EXPERIENCE

SIDLEY LLP, Los Angeles (2002 – 2010)

- Taught New Associate Training workshops, including drafting and challenging pleadings, drafting and responding to discovery, and managing document productions.
- Taught cross-examination workshops for Loyola Law School's Young Lawyers Program.

SIDLEY LLP – DORSEY HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIP (September 2006 – June 2010)

Established and managed educational partnership between Sidley's Los Angeles Office and Dorsey High School's Law Magnet Program.

- Developed and taught workshops on various legal issues, such as the First Amendment.
- Collaborated with attorneys, faculty, and administrators to create workshops, simulated classes, and interactive experiences at Loyola Law School and Sidley.
- Coached Dorsey's mock trial team

COLLEGE MARKETPLACE PROGRAM, Los Angeles

A start-up non-profit organization serving underrepresented high school students.

Program Director (August 1993 – September 1994)

- Designed and taught college preparation programs for students at three LAUSD high schools involving interactive workshops, and informational interviews of college students, professors, and professionals.
- Facilitated seminars and college visits exposing students to college options, financial aid, the admissions process, and entrance exams.

EDUCATIONAL TALENT SEARCH PROGRAM, USC, Los Angeles

A federally-funded program serving low-income high school students.

Assistant Director (December 1991 – June 1993)

- Directed academic support programs and taught workshops at seven inner-city high schools.
- Counseled high school students on academic, higher education, and career issues.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

OCCIDENTAL COLLEGE, Los Angeles

A liberal arts college with enrollment of 1,600 students.

Admissions Counselor (September 1990 – November 1991)

- Recruited, interviewed, evaluated, and counseled student applicants.
- Directed an early outreach program for underrepresented junior high school students.

CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY, Sacramento

Assembly Fellow (October 1989 – August 1990)

- Created and promoted legislation for a bilingual teacher training program.
- Drafted and analyzed reports, briefing papers, and press releases for Assembly Labor Committee.

EDUCATION

Stanford Law School, JD with Distinction (1997)

Occidental College, BA, Public Policy, Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude (1989)