AREAS OF WORK

Reparation for mass atrocities and transitional justice. Civil litigation, research, and project development and management relating to the Holocaust, the Armenian genocide, Sudan/Darfur, and Libyan-sponsored terrorist aircraft hijacking. Litigated and worked on claims filed with the Conference of Jewish Material Claims Against Germany, U.S. Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Courts of Appeal, U.S. District Courts, and state courts. Collaboration with major Los Angeles-area nonprofit legal services provider Bet Tzedek.

International criminal justice. Research and project development and direction relating to the Russian war in Ukraine, Nagorno-Karabakh/Artsakh, Khmer Rouge in Cambodia, the Rohingya in Myanmar, ISIS crimes in Syria, and the Special Court for Sierra Leone. Collaboration with international prosecutors and investigators. Official NGO observer of pre-trial proceedings at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Human rights; international courts and tribunals. Civil litigation, research, and project development and management relating to Alien Tort Statute and property claims of religious minorities in China, indigenous groups in Ecuador, and sexual abuse of a minor in U.S. courts; petitions and observations filed with the European Court of Human Rights, Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, Human Rights Committee, Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, and Committee against Torture.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represented pro bono Sudanese American Community Groups as amici curiae in Second Circuit appeal of tort claims brought by Sudanese-American refugees against major multinational investment bank.
- Successfully represented Armenian Apostolic Church of Cilicia, seeking the return of illuminated pages from a thirteenth century gospel book which were stolen during the Armenian genocide and subsequently purchased by a leading international art institution.

- Successfully argued that foreign state banks are not immune from suit in U.S. courts under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act based on allegations of expropriation of property in the context of genocide or mass human rights abuses. (Later reversed in a separate case at the U.S. Supreme Court.)
- Argued the Ninth Circuit appeal of putative class action against German banks for the return of deposits made prior to or during the Armenian Genocide.
- Represented Sudanese refugees in the United States in transnational tort suit brought in New York federal court against major global investment bank that pled guilty to violating U.S. sanctions laws prohibiting financial transactions with Sudan.
- Represented petitioners in en banc Ninth Circuit argument and subsequent petition for writ of certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court in case involving foreign affairs field preemption.
- Successfully represented victims of Libyan terrorist hijacking attack in pursuing claims for compensation before the U.S. Foreign Claims Settlement Commission.
- Represented 42 members of the Huaorani people, an indigenous people and minority group in the Amazon region in Ecuador, who suffered injuries as a result of leading oil company's petroleum activities in the Amazon region in Ecuador, in New York state and related federal actions.
- Represented proposed plaintiff class of members of the Falun Gong religion in an Alien Tort Statute case against Cisco Systems, Inc. for its development of the "Golden Shield" technology used in China to persecute plaintiffs.
- Represented pro bono a Honduran-based non-profit and the widow and son of a Honduran labor rights attorney assassinated by state agents in a petition to the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights for violations of the American Convention on Human Rights.
- Coordinated one of the top two bid proposals for U.S. Agency for International Development rule of law project in Sri Lanka with the goal of improving the management and efficacy capacity of the Sri Lankan legal system.
- Represented heirs in U.S. federal court action against Romania and a state-owned film agency seeking compensation for the confiscation of a family-owned and industry-leading motion picture production and post-production company in Bucharest, Romania, which was unlawfully expropriated by the communist government in the late 1940s by way of a sham stock purchase in violation of international law.
- Represented nationally recognized dancer and choreographer in coordinated probate and civil suits for childhood sexual abuse against deceased world-renowned pop music star and associated legal entities.
