TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, California

Spring 2016-2023

Adjunct Professor, Habeas Corpus Litigation Seminar

This is a class covering state and federal non-capital habeas corpus litigation with the goal of providing a practical overview of postconviction litigation in the context of the historical origins of, and political tensions surrounding, the Great Writ and how it is litigated in both state and federal courts, with a focus on litigation in California state and federal courts.

Southwestern Law School, Los Angeles, California

Spring 2021 - Present

Adjunct Professor, Habeas Corpus Litigation & Wrongful Conviction Seminar

The two classes are (1) Habeas Corpus Litigation, which focuses on state and federal non-capital habeas corpus litigation, and (2) Wrongful Convictions, which is focused on the broader causes of wrongful convictions, such as forensic science, state misconduct, eyewitness misidentification, and racial bias.
